Volunteer Manager	Fundraising manager
Where you will be based	Event

Why we want you

Across the UK we host lots of different events which requires the help of our volunteers. As a Volunteer Fundraising Events Coordinator you will assist in organising and ensuring the successful delivery of fantastic events such as marathons, walks, British Red Cross Week (an annual fundraising event that celebrates our work worldwide) and much more.

What you will be doing

- Supporting with sending communications and materials to participants prior to the event
- Helping with logistical tasks in advance of the big day
- On the day you could be helping behind the scenes, organising on the day volunteers, or leading on specific activities
- Promoting the British Red Cross and our work
- Using your skills and interest in the event to provide participants and volunteers with a great experience

The skills you need

- Communications and organisation skills
- Some experience in supporting at events would be useful
- A warm and friendly outlook
- An interest in the event
- Actively want to learn and develop your skills

What's in it for you

- Gain confidence and skills
- Be the power of kindness in your community
- Meet like minded people
- An opportunity to be part of the world's largest humanitarian organisation and the knowledge that you are making a difference to people's lives when they are most vulnerable
